

Please keep XM and other satellite radio local weather and traffic broadcasts. They are very helpful to me as I drive and have a safety aspect as well as convenience. Finding such information by scanning local stations is a hit and miss proposition that distracts one from the task of driving safely.